Disciples Making Disciples Globally

SAMS seeks to empower disciples globally to engage in God’s work. In 2021, missionaries continued to equip people of many nations in a variety of ways. A few examples:

Jack Melvin with a SAMS World Relief Fund grant hired a Honduran pastor, who is also a professional mason, to construct a house for the Guerra family, who lost their home in the 2020 hurricanes. Jack, in addition to being the diocesan architect, also coordinates sponsors to support the education of at-risk children. The construction manager of the Guerra home project, Ana, graduated recently from university with help from this ministry Jack founded.

David and Patricia Ayres persevered in their German church plant’s vision to raise up faithful disciples who make disciples.

Suzy McCall and her Honduran ministry team helped parents of students in the LAMB school to start self-sustaining small businesses through training and grants.

Heidi Whitaker employed her skills as a pediatrician to train Cambodian medical workers in a hospital that emanates the light of Christ in the capital city.

...Be strengthened by the grace that is in Christ Jesus, and what you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses entrust to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also.

—2 Timothy 2:1-2 ESV

Jonathan and Tess Hicks, through the generosity of their senders, helped two Melanesian priests and their wives come to the USA to begin three years of further theological training, preparing them to teach future pastors back in the Solomon Islands.
