Family Legacy

True joy in life includes knowing we are being used for a mighty purpose. With modern technology and global impact, we belong to the whole community. Rejoicing in our life's role, our purpose is a splendid torch which we carry for a season. Burning brightly for the moment, our legacy continues as we hand the torch to future generations.

Todd and I are more than thrilled to support Corbi, our eldest daughter in her latest endeavors for global health care. Working with the not-for-profit Global Health Impact (GHI), Corbi, according to her husband, rocked her 'Beyond Borders' presentation at the GAPA (Georgia Association for Physician's Assistant) conference in July.

Global Health ImPAct bridges healthcare education and service through meaningful partnerships that improve health outcomes, strengthen communities and develop compassionate healthcare leaders. Through service-learning experiences locally and overseas, they seek to create lasting impact with clinical education and sustainable global partnerships. Corbi and Joe, along with their three children, Raela 3, Eliah 5 and Jabin 8, were able to work alongside local leaders in Belize for a week this summer.

Want to run the race with us? Global Health Impact (GHI) is having a Virtual 5K fundraiser for an amazing cause – global health. It's more than a race – it's an opportunity to create meaningful change to underserved communities. Your race. Your pace. Their access to care. Together, we can demonstrate the power of healthcare professionals, students and supporters united by a common mission: improving access to care. Service Legacy Legacy is about fulfilling our personal calling(s) in life. One of mine was serving and partnering with the people in Madagascar first as lay person, then as deacon, priest and finally, as a bishop. I was able to lean into various areas of service such as health care (starting 9 medical clinics), education (starting three primary schools and three theological schools), and economical development projects (various parish projects). Presently, I serve others through life coaching and as a supply priest in the Diocese of SE Florida. Life is about serving others, leaving a legacy for others to follow.

One example of a wonderful service legacy is Five Talents USA. Patsy and I have been involved with Five Talents over the past 20 years and have helped interest them in Madagascar, especially with the Diocese of Toliara. The Five Talents Mission focuses on reaching the most vulnerable, helping the whole person and empowering local leadership. Next year Five Talents plans to expand to a new country - Madagascar! - and will start their first program in the Diocese of Toliara. Through a number of relationships and events, it is clear that God has brought Five Talents USA and the Diocese of Toliara together in a deep and meaningful partnership. Patsy and I are thrilled about what God is doing. If you would like to learn more about Five Talents and get involved in this partnership please click on this link. <http://www.fivetalents.org>

...Thanks be to God for a wonderful living legacy family reunion in Big Canoe, GA. Fun times were had by all, tubing, hiking, playing and swimming until our skin withered. What a joy to have Charese come from CT, and Corbi and her family from Lawrenceville, GA, joining Patsy's sister and many of Betsy's family also.

...Praise be to God for Patsy's many contacts made when attending Thistle Farms Conference in June, focusing on anti-human trafficking and survivor leadership. In response to people's interest in Miaraka: A Time to Dance musical, Zoom Watch Parties have been well attended, and a writer has come forth to help write/brainstorm the novel coinciding with Miaraka: A Time to Dance musical. Please pray for continual forward movement for all aspects of the Miaraka Project to leave a legacy, all to the glory of God.

...Thanks be to God for Todd's continual ministry of Life Coaching, Patsy's was able to serve as Spiritual Director for Cursillo and Todd and Patsy serve supply priests in the Diocese of SE Florida. Please pray as they preach the gospel and give mission presentations at various churches around the Diocese.

...Pray for Todd and Patsy as they continue to raise support for their ministry.

...Pray for the Mother's Union Conference in Madagascar.
